Appeals Board Ponders Dump

THE COMMUNITY FUND "BIG PARADE"

Next Saturday, October 26, at 1 p.m. there will be a parade to top all parades to date; The purpose of which is to spur enthusiasm for the Wilmington football team and give the town something to talk about. This parade is sponsored by the Wilmington Community Fund committee, in the belief we can enjoy a full afternoon of parade, football and bands in hope the townspeople will co-operate later in the evening by opening their doors and pocket books, between 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. to a solicitor for the drive. "Leave your lights on between 6 p.m. and 8 p.m."

The parade will start at Weinberg's Store, proceed along Main Street to Church Street in the Square, then turn left down Church Street, along Church Street to the High School. Included in the parade will be the following: The Wilmington Police Force, Fire Department, and Town Officials, floats by the Girl Scouts, Lions, Dental Clinic, Skating Club, and "40 Acres".

The 18th Army Band from Fort Devens will participate, the Civil Air Patrol Cadets, the Chelmsford High Band, Wilmington High Band, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled Veterans, the Legion and auxiliaries and Rene Larabee is going to really do his best with a flat bed truck on which will be frogmen, and a receiving set with public address system to broadcast contact with a Civil defense plane flying overhead; also Rene will have Civil Defense units from Saugus, Tewksbury, Wakefield, Cambridge, Woburn and Lowell.

Fred Cain has again offered the use of his cars for dignitaries. Come one, Come all, take the afternoon off and enjoy yourself, watch Wilmington win the Game.

Selectmen To Parade Saturday

The Board of Selectmen will take part in the huge Community Fund parade next Saturday. Look for members in the Model T now on display in the Wilmington Ford Sales yard. Chairman Nicholas DeFelice is slated to drive the Lions Float.

Selectmen Object To Billboards

A notice from Building Inspector Ernest Rice regarding the erection of three billboards on railroad property brought forth the feelings of the Selectmen Monday evening.

The question of legality was raised, whether the town zoning laws, which prohibits billboards, applies to railroad property. The B & M claims that they don't; the town holds that they do.

Selectman Charles Black suggested that Town Counsel Phillip Buzzell be asked to enjoin the billboard erectors to remove the signs.

October 30 Last Day For Registration

The Board of Registrars announces that next Wednesday, October 30, is the last day to register for the State Primaries to be held Nov. 19.

The Registrars will be at Town Hall from 12:00 noon until 10:00 p.m. for the convenience of those who have not registered to vote. Town Clerk Mary Russell also is available at Town Hall during regular business hours.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of William S. Cavanaugh wish to thank the V. F. W. Post 2458, and Auxiliary, American Legion Post 136 and Auxiliary, D. A. V. Post 106 and Auxiliary, The Wilmington Police Dept., the Wilmington Rotary Club, St. Thomas Holy Name Society, St. Thomas C.D.A. and all their friends and relatives for their expressions of sympathy and acts of kindness during their recent bereavement.

The most unenviable position in town at the moment is that held by the members of the Board of Appeals.

Feeling is running high on both sides of the "dump issue". On one hand, supporters of the plan to locate a sanitary land fill on the former Moran property on lower Main St., led by the Board of Health, are in the position of finding a permanent dump. The Canales property on MacDonald Road was only to be used as a temporary measure, and as time runs out on the six month contract, the Board of Health is searching for a suitable permanent arrangement. Their proposal is to issue a permit to Clarence Spinazola to operate a sanitary land fill dump, where trenches are dug and rubbish dumped and covered by fill. Mr. Spinazola will allow the town to dump here for $4,000.00 a year.

On the other side, residents of the area have formed an alliance to protest the location of the dump in this area. One fear of the group is that, as a commercial operation, and a large and expensive one, outside cities would be able to enter into contract to use the facilities. Knowing that Woburn, Somerville, Medford and Cambridge, to name the most often mentioned, are looking for disposal facilities, and that Mr. Spinazola would be able to handle an operation this size, they fear that Wilmington would become "the dumping ground of Southeast Middlesex County", as one gentleman who attended last Thursday's postponed hearing put it.

The hearing, held in the high school auditorium, featured a film sponsored by the Board of Health showing the advantages of this type of operation over other dumping methods. While Board of Health member's argued for the dump, the residents presented their case to the appeal board through two spokesmen, Paul Metcalf and Tom Galvin. The men were chosen to represent the group at a meeting held the previous Tuesday at the Skating Club on Chestnut St. Points mentioned in the list of arguments presented were those of the dangers of fire, water pollution, vermin and traffic. Mr. Metcalf, at one point, asked whether a "deal" had been made with Woburn. "Do we let our sewerage go through Woburn in exchange for their dumping here?"

Asked for his opinion, Town Manager Courtney refused to commit himself to any great extent. He said he thought the operation, if handled properly, would be very good. He cited a sanitary land fill in Westport, Connecticut, next to the Women's Club, where the ladies held a tea party to show what a pleasant spot their dump was. On the question of re-zoning that arose, Mr. Courtney seemed to be of the opinion that the same ruling might apply as does to gravel under the new zoning regulations. Some present at the hearing wondered whether it was permissible under the zoning rules to have a commercial operation in a rural zone.

After hearing all arguments, Chairman of the appeal Board, Walter Hale, closed the hearing and stated that before ruling on the case, they would hear from the Board of Health the restrictions to be on the permit and the extent of the operation; and from the Town Counsel on the legal points.

TROOP 56 TO HOLD HALLOWEEN PARTY

On Friday, October 18, the meeting of Troop 56 was opened by John Ritchie and Jimmy Justice with the Pledge of Allegiance and the Scout Oath. The Beaver Patrol took over the meeting with inspection and dues. Bob Weatherbee is leader of the Beaver Patrol.

On Friday, October 25, there will be a Halloween party instead of the regular Friday night meeting. There will be prizes for the most original costumes and if any boy 11 years old or older is interested in scouting, please come to the party Friday night.

Again this week, we thank everyone who gave to the Boy Scout paper drive.

WILMINGTON FIREMEN'S ASSOCIATION

Hello there, here we are in another season where the departments all over are going to ask those of you that go into the woodlands in search of game to exercise caution and use common sense in regard to our common enemy, the forest fire. Although most of the area has had a goodly amount of rainfall in the last week or so, there is always that potential danger from fire, and it wouldn't take too much to have the woods in a closed condition such as they were a very short time back. None of us want to see a good sport curtailed, so therefore, we ask your cooperation in regards to the above mentioned danger. Some of our boys have been up country already and from reports coming back have been doing all right as far as birds go. The first of November, though, will separate the men from the boys when they go after the all elusive deer. Time will tell who is and who is not the hunter.

Things here in the dept., have not been too busy due to the rain that fell over the week-end. Most of the runs have been ambulance cases.

The drawing booklet in aid of our Xmas Basket has been put to press and should be in circulation in about a week. The committee with the cooperation of the various merchants within the town, have been able to increase the amount of prizes to be given away and therefore has increased the value of the books. The price will stay the same however, as it has in the past years. We here of the department have hopes of increasing the beauty of the station come the holiday season, and have hope of lighting it up more each year until it will be the best dressed station around.

The cost of this does not cost the town anything, as the work and materials are donated by the boys themselves. The Department was well represented last Friday night on the occasion of the Lions Annual Ball held at the Andover Country Club and from all reports, everyone had a wonderful time.

On Friday, Nov. 1, the members of the department have been invited to join the Burlington Fire Department for their annual Entertainment and Ball to be held at the Memorial High School. We have hopes of some of the off-duty men being able to go and represent this department.

THE LION'S ROAR

This past weekend has seen one of my statements come true. If you remember, for some time now I have been telling you "For the Ball of your Life, Make it the Lion's Ball." Well, Friday night saw some well over 200 couples turn out to the Andover Country Club and have the most wonderful time of their lives. The dance area had been enlarged and made it so much more comfortable that you had to enjoy yourself. The band was in top-notch condition as Jack Hennessey's Group always is: the food was good, what there was of it and all in all it was a very well spent evening. I didn't see one "simply furious" person all night.

The meeting last week was a very good one so I am told. I was unable to make it due to reasons beyond my control, but I was informed that the guest speaker for the evening was Officer Ritchie, who is also on the coaching staff of the football team that is going so strong this year. I guess I will have to lay off the boys for this week as I am in no position to deride any of them for not making the meeting, although I can still say, it makes for a better club when 100 percent membership is present, more can be accomplished and many hands make light the work.

King Lion George Cushing would like to extend a vote of thanks for a job well done to the Committee who worked so hard to make last Friday nights Ball the outstanding success that it was, and I think all the members will go along with his feelings at this time. The next date the King has asked me to bring before you is the Do-nut Day to be held on Nov. 11 at the Country Style Shop on Main St., in the Square. At this time the members will do all the serving and the selling and hope to see you all there.

Just Wondering? If Donnie enjoyed the dozen eggs he ate recently? If everyone who was at the ball enjoyed it as much as I did?

If the one who got the prize at the last meeting collected it?

Where Eddie Neagle got that red vest?

Why Tony was so late in getting out to his wares the next morning?

What happened to the sandwiches Friday night?

What the full schedule of Zone Dance is?

Where Joe was Wednesday night, and if Pete has his signs yet?

Well, I will have to close for now, so until next week, I'll be saying, "See you at the Do-Nut Shop where all friends meet."

FISHERMEN'S SHRINE

SCIENCE CLUB PLANS THREE-STAGE ROCKET

reporter: Lin Kemp

Plans are being drawn up by the Science Club of Wilmington High School to build and launch a small three stage rocket. The total combined height of the three stages will be 80 inches. The rocket will be lifted to a height of five miles by a weather balloon, then set off automatically to ascend to a height of 25 miles. The proposed purpose of the rocket is to photograph certain stars and other heavenly bodies.

The junior scientists involved in the development of the rocket are Roger Luken, Philip Kavanaugh, Robert Hastings, and Butch Boudreau.

A weather station is the present project of the science club. Equipment and information have been requested from the Washington Weather Bureau, which has acknowledged and approved the project. Letters concerning the weather station have also been sent to Tufts and other colleges.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday Morning Worship Service at 11:00 A.M., with our Pastor Elliot Castillo bringing the message. The Pastor desires that a spirit of prayer pervade all of the services of the church. He feels that the minutes just prior to a service are crucial and should be devoted to a united prayer effort between him and members and friends of the church. And so he invites all who would like to join him in prayer to meet on the stage behind the curtains at 10:45 a.m.

Evangelistic Service:
7:30 p.m. Sunday evening, where there is always a stirring "Old fashioned" song service which everybody enjoys, special music, testimonies and a Gospel Message. Come out and receive a wonderful blessing.

B. Y. F. Meeting: Meeting will be held at the Parsonage at 5:00 p.m. this Sunday.

Choir Rehearsal:

Wednesday evening, 7:30 p.m. Choir Rehearsal at the home of Roger Nichols, 98 Church Street.

"Hour of Power"

Thursday evening, 7:30 p.m. "Hour of Power" Service will be held at the Parsonage, 173 Church Street. This is a service dedicated to Bible Study, discussion, prayer, hymns of praise and testimonies; and is a necessary program if a Christian is to grow strong.

ROBIN ARRIVES AT THE LAND HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Land of Salem St., are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of their daughter, Robin. Robin was born at Lowell General Hospital on Thursday, October 10.

The Lands have two older children, Martha and Jerry.

MOVE INTO NEW HOME

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Adelino Pereria and their sons Richard and Edward of Oak St. The Pereria family has just moved into their brand new home. Their former address was MacDonald Rd.

LEGION WHIST COMING UP

Members of American Legion Post 136 have extended a cordial invitation to the public to attend their annual turkey whist to be conducted at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, November 14 at the high school cafeteria.

All members who would care to donate prizes may call OL 8-2514. Proceeds will go toward the distribution of Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets to needy families.

If you are hitting the highway this Labor Day, then watch out for more cars than ever before crowding the traffic arteries. The Massachusetts Safety Council says your best protection against accidents is to drive the way you'd like other people to drive. Follow the golden rule, obey the rules of the road and avoid trouble.

POST OFFICE FILM AVAILABLE HERE, POSTMASTER SAYS
 The Post Office is finally going modern, Postmaster
 Henry J. Porter of Wilmington says, and he has the film to prove it.
 The film, "Men, Mail and Machines" is an exciting pictorial presentation of the new electronic and super-automatic devices now being installed in some of the major post offices in the nation.
 Postmaster Porter invites all civic, church, school or social clubs in this area to contact him if they are desired of showing the film at their meetings.
 "The Post Office has been trying for years to give the public twentieth century service out of nineteenth century facilities," Porter says.
 Postmaster General Summerfield, in attempting to revolutionize the outmoded techniques of mail handling in the postal establishment, had to start from scratch.
 He had to ask the electronics industry to develop machines that hadn't even been invented as yet. This film is a remarkable presentation of the progress being made in the United States mail service.
 He added that even if automation is not installed in the Wilmington post office
 the program will greatly accelerate out of town mail in this area because mail will move more swiftly through the large gateway post offices in the country.

LOCAL RESIDENTS ATTEND TB MEETING

"Are You Positive?" was the major question asked local tuberculosis committee chairman at the October 10th Board of Directors'
 Meeting of the Middlesex Health Association at the Middlesex County Sanatorium Library. Attending from Wilmington were: Mrs. Guy
 C. Nichols, Director at Large
 Mrs. Stanley Cummings, chairman of Wilmington Tuberculosis Committee,
 Mrs. John P. Silvers, member.

"Are You Positive?" is the title of the new animated color film produced by the National Tuberculosis Association to combat public misunderstanding about the status of tuberculosis today.
 After reviewing this film, local directors were asked to plan film showings to all community meetings of parents, teachers, social clubs, fraternal and religious groups, and to all other Wilmington people they can reach. In this humorous cartoon motion picture, familiar beliefs and opinions about TB are stated, examined, and then exploded by the narrator who gives an up-to-date picture of TB and its problems to the individual and the community.

Board members also discussed current local programs of tuberculosis control and prevention made possible in the Middlesex County area through Seal funds. Chest x-ray surveys among high tuberculosis in-vely return to active com-begin next week. Rehabilitation services continue for some 117 ex-sanatorium patients needing help to effect-Burt Tilley, Mrs. Frank Hagmunity living. School, industry, and community health education activities are also on the fall and winter program agenda for the Association and its affiliated local tuberculosis committees.
 Other members of the Wilmington committee are: Mrs.
 J. P. Prindle, Mrs. Ernest
 Anderson, Mrs. Herbert Barrows, Miss Ethel Butters, Mrs. David Martin, Mrs.
 Burt Tilley, Mrs. Frank Hag-
 erty, Mrs. Henry G. Hartwell, Mrs. Robert P. Lyle, Dr. Galus E. Harmon.

LOCAL TEACHERS ENROLL FOR EDUCATORS INSTITUTE

Four teachers from the Wilmington Schools have signed up for the Educators Institute, sponsored by the Massachusetts Assoc., for Mental Health: Mrs. Isabelle A. Burns, Pauline Leiter, John H. Hamilton, and Mrs. Mildred Keville.

The Institute will be held at Boston College, School of Education.

Here superintendents, guidance directors, principals, college faculty members, educational consultants and teachers of all grade levels will meet together and through group discussions guided by psychiatrists deal with problems they face in everyday classroom situations.

These discussions are directed toward increasing self-awareness which in turn leads to understanding and tolerance of stresses and deeper perceptions of what lies behind the behavior of children.

In the Educators Institute teachers not only have a unique opportunity to discuss challenging questions on behavior with other educators, in skillfully moderated small group meetings, but also participate in an experience which helps them become aware of how their own feelings and attitudes affect the way their work with children.

Dr. Henry Wermer, Chief Child Psychiatrist, Beth Israel Hospital, member of the Board of the Massachusetts Association for Mental Health and one of the Consultants to the Planning Committee for the Institute, says, "The Institute is not the entire means to an end, nor is it a 'gripe' session."

Rather it is one experience in which educators are helped to see how their own emotions affect the disciplinary problems they face. Parents, school counselors, guidance directors, religious leaders, citizens of the community itself, all make an impact on the lives of children. But one of the most important aspects of the Institute is the opportunity provided teachers to share problems with each other. There is relief in this for teachers.

Dr. Frank Buckley, Jr., Associate Professor of Education, Boston College Graduate School, and a member of the Institute's Planning Committee, in speaking of the value of the Institute stated, "In Boston College Graduate School, we utilize the discussion method as a means by which we can look back in limited way at our own feelings. This gives the teacher a sensitivity to the meaning behind actions."

This year's Institute will be the eighth consecutive year in which The Massachusetts Association for Mental Health has sponsored such a meeting of educators and psychiatrists in which the discussion method for the mental health approach to classroom understanding has been used. Approximately 1,000 teachers have participated in the Institutes over this period.

Dr. Libbie B. Bower, Director, Mental Health Education, The Massachusetts Assoc. for Mental Health, feels that, "Teachers are eager to know how to function more effectively in understanding the feelings of children. Within this process of self-education, self-awareness, the Institute has a function."

Miss Bettina King, Principal, Meadowbrook Junior High School, Newton Centre, and Chairman of the Institute's Planning Committee, voiced her opinion, "Some are perturbed about problems which arise in the classroom. This is not true of all. Nor can a teacher learn this sensitivity from reading books, nor by attendance at one Mental Health Institute. I would be pleased if through the Institute experience a teacher gained some awareness into some of the feelings of children."

The Massachusetts Association for Mental Health, as part of its community mental health education program, also holds workshops and for educators. These workshops and seminars afford more intensive training in self-understanding and sensitivity to others.

Dr. Donald Klein, Clinical Psychologist, Wellesley Human Relations Service, and Co-Chairman of the Institute's Planning Committee, feels there is, "Some similarity of experience between teachers and psychiatrists in a one-day group discussion and the teachers and psychiatrists in a seminar group over a longer period."

The Institute will open for registration and assignment to discussion groups at 9:30 a.m., October 19th. The Rev. Charles F. Donovan, S. J., Dean of the School of Education, Boston College, will welcome participating educators. Mrs. Irene T. Malamud, Executive Director, The Massachusetts Association for Mental Health, will give the welcome of the Association.

A panel presentation, moderated by Dr. Norman Zinberg, Assistant Director of the Psychiatric Service, Beth Israel Hospital, will set the stage for the day. Other panel participants will be Dr. Clifton W. Emery, Jr., Dean of Men, Tufts University, and President of the Association; Miss Louise Alger, mathematics teacher, Winsor School, Boston; and Jack Palmer, guidance director Concord School Department.

Psychiatrists leading the various discussion groups will be: Dr. Arnold Abrams, Dr. Martin A. Benesin, Dr. Leo Berman, Dr. Benjamin Brussels, Dr. Edward M. Daniels, Dr. Max Day, Dr.

Other consultants for the Planning Committee are Dr. Kenneth D. Bene and Dr. Leo Berman.

The Planning Committee also includes educators: Dorothy Maxim, Secretary; Edward Conley, Charles K. Cummings; Dora Becherman, Arthur Danielson, Vera Dowden, Margaret Droney, Charles Haley, Roberta Kellogg, Robert Leserte, Cecile LeClaire, Esther Matthews, David H. CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH SCHOOL NEWS

Announcement has been made by David Cox, Superintendent of the Congregational Church School, that an arrangement has now been made which would appear to take care of the Church School sessions in a satisfactory manner. In general, pupils up to and including Grade 4 will meet at 9:30 and students from Grade 5 up at 11:00. However, in order to accommodate parents who wish to attend the 9:30 worship service, a class for pupils of Grades 5 and 6 is now being offered at this hour in the church kitchen, which is the only available space. Such parents, therefore, have an optional choice. No pupils below the High School level will hereafter worship with adults in the Sanctuary. They will have their own worship services in their own department.

A buzzer system has been installed throughout the entire church plant, which makes it possible to coordinate the closing of the church school sessions with the close of worship in the Sanctuary.

Mr. Cox has expressed gratification concerning the excellent teaching staff which has been assembled. The prospect for the coming year is very promising, and unless there should be a continued influx of new students it is believed the new arrangement for the class sessions should hold good until at least the end of the present church year.

In addition to the Sunday program of religious education, Protestant students of Grade 9 are meeting regularly at this church for week-day religious education on Monday at 1:15 p.m.

The USS NAUTILUS (SS (N) 571) finally refueled after steaming more than 60,000 miles. A conventional ship comparable in size to Nautilus would have consumed an estimated 3,000,000 gallons of fuel oil.

At the last business meeting of Chapter 106 it was decided to put over the nominations for Junior Vice Commander until the next meeting on Nov. 6, when, it is hoped, there will be a much larger group of members present. Pete Lepore was appointed Service Officer and will be available on the second Monday of every month at the headquarters on Grove Ave. from 7 to 9 p.m. to assist veterans and their dependents with any problems they may have.

John Kenney advised the members that there has been a sharp cut in employment in many of the large plants, in this area. He suggested that all members should contact the chapter should they know of any jobs available anywhere in the area. In this way, we may be able to assist some of our unfortunate comrades who may be in need of work. Any information of this kind should be forwarded to our Employment Officer, Alfred Lynch.

Adjutant John Davis wishes to remind all delinquent members that 1957 dues should be paid as soon as possible. Plans are under way to raise the annual dues because of increased assessments by State and National Headquarters. So, in order to have the membership rolls up to date before the increase, we urge all who have yet to pay their 1957 dues, to do so as soon as possible.

Plans are under way to present the annual D.A.V. Trophy at the Wilmington-Tewksbury Football game. The trophy will be presented to the outstanding Wilmington player of the game. Chapter 106 extends its congratulations to the team, the coaches, and the student body for their fine spirit and achievements this season. This revitalized spirit and interest in the school, the team and the town is a most healthy outlet for our young people.

Commander Simpson issued a call for all members who can possibly do so, to take part in the Community Fund Kickoff Parade on Sat. Oct. 26. The parade will form at Weinberg's at noon and proceed to the High School Athletic Field. Our own Past Commander Jim Shine is Chief Marshal so let's all get behind him and put it over.

PIANO TEAM DUE NOV. 2

On Saturday evening, November 2, in the Barrows Auditorium at 8:15 the Carter Lecture Committee will present the only program of the 1957-58 season.

The Smythes, Dorothy and Fred, will offer a delightful and unusual duo-piano program. A husband and wife team, they play both popular and classical selections. They are particularly interested in Latin-American music and will do audience-request numbers, and keyboard novelties.

These programs are offered free of charge to the people of Wilmington through the generosity of the late Sarah D. J. Carter.

The Committee extends a cordial invitation to the townspeople to be sure and attend this top-flight performance.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTISTS HAS LECTURE BY THEODORE WALLACH

Unlimited health and peace are proved to be practical possibilities in accord with Scriptural promise, when true Christianity is put into action, Theodore Wallach of Chicago, Ill., said here Saturday evening, October 12, in a Christian Science lecture.

THEODORE WALLACH

Materialistic thinking alone obscures the fact of unlimited spiritual goods available to humanity, he said.

Remove materialism from thought and the presence of good is demonstrable according to spiritually scientific rules, he maintained.

By consistently endeavoring to think Christly thoughts "to live in close accord with the concept of limitless good which Jesus demonstrated" - the individual will find, the lecturer said, that "you cannot associate with right thoughts without being uplifted, purified, healed."

Such thinking not only is the key to the healing of individual problems, but also is needed in prayers for world peace, he declared. "To pray the prayer of peace for the world," he said, "your own thoughts must be at peace. Peace, like charity, begins at home."

Mr. Wallach is now on an extensive lecture tour, and his address before a large local audience was under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Reading. He is a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship.

DESTROYING THE IRREPLACEABLE

About 150 years ago, John James Audubon, the painter of the monumental "Birds of America", estimated that he saw 2 billion passenger pigeons at one time. They darkened the sky and whitened the earth as they passed. The last passenger pigeon died in a mid-western zoo early in this century, and the species is now extinct.

Less than one century ago, buffalo roamed the Western plains in vast herds. Now only a comparative handful are left.

The giant whooping crane was once known in great numbers. Now only 30 have been counted in the Florida sanctuary to which they migrate, and there is grave fear that this species may soon go the way of the passenger pigeon.

The tragedy is that we can destroy wildlife resources—destroy them relatively quickly. But we can bring them back from the brink of destruction only with the greatest difficulty—and often we cannot bring them back at all.

It is a rare American who has no stake and no interest in the out-of-doors and its creatures. In a recent year something like 14 million fishing licenses were sold. Many millions go hunting. Untold numbers go to the streams, the mountains, the seashores and the forest for recreation and restoration of the spirit. Is it not the part of the most elementary wisdom—selfish wisdom—for everyone to help conserve these resources to the limit of his ability?

Carelessness, ignorance, and exploitation are enemies we must fight. Fire, stream pollution, game hogs, the litterbugs who leave trails of trash and filth—these menace the existence of the irreplaceable. Don't be one of them.

SUNDAY EVENING SERVICE AT METHODIST CHURCH TO FEATURE SPECIAL PROGRAM ON THE MUSIC OF THE CHURCH

On Sunday evening, Oct. 27, at 7 the series of evening services held in the Wilmington Methodist Church during the month of October will be concluded. These evening services have dealt with the major emphasis of the Christian church in the day in which we live, and the service on the coming Sunday will center entirely around the theme "The Music of the Church."

The Rev. Jake Golden, pastor of the Broadway Methodist Church in Somerville, a preacher with a great baritone voice, and a love of music will lead this service. Mr. Golden stated, "The music of the reformation has as much to do with the spread of the Protestant Movement as did the verbal message."

The members and friends of the church will come together to sing their faith, and the service ought to be a wonderful climax to the series sponsored during the month.

ORGANIZED, TO MEET THURSDAY WILMINGTON BOOSTERS ASSOC.

Whatever the original spark that ignited the enthusiasm of the high school students in Wilmington this year, it had fanned into a flame of school spirit that had caught the imagination of the adults in town. Latest effort in behalf of the morale of the students is the formation of a Wilmington High School Boosters Association.

Headed by Helen Casey and Margie Dyas, the group, "to promote and create interest in high school activities with moral and financial support", has plans underway, already for a football banquet and special souvenir program to be sold at the big game on Nov. 11. Along with facing their traditional rivals, Tewksbury, the students will see the athletic field dedicated.

Thursday evening, Oct. 24, the first meeting of the Boosters will be held at the high school cafeteria. If everyone who has felt a thrill at seeing the Wilmington Wildcats whip three rivals in three weeks, shows their appreciation by showing up and supporting the new organization, the flame may become a bonfire.

Board of Health Member First Flu Victim

Wilmington's first officially diagnosed case of Asiatic flu picked as its victim a member of the Board of Health, Gus Walker.

Board of Health Agent, Patrick Thibau reports that no other cases have been reported to the Board. The flu currently attacking the school children has so far been reported as a mild intestinal type.

Flu Vaccine for town employees, ordered some time ago, is due today.

The priests of the parish are grateful to the blitz committee for the proceeds of last Tuesday's party. They are also grateful to Mrs. Sophie Giles and her committee for the proceeds of last Friday's Whist. This coming Friday evening, Mrs. Pauline Thiel and her committee will conduct a whist at St. Dorothy's Hall.

CYO members of both St. Thomas' and St. Dorothy's will receive Holy Communion in a body next Sunday at St. Thomas' at the 8:00 o'clock mass.

Instructions for student altar boys will be held each Monday evening at 7:00 at St. Mary's.

The Novena in honor of Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal is held at 7:45 each Monday evening.

The Ladies of the Sodality will meet at St. Mary's on Thursday evening at 7:30. After the meeting there will be benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

YOUTH CANTEN
HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Youth Canteen of the Wilmington Methodist Church will sponsor a Halloween party on Friday evening, October 25, beginning at 7 p.m. The counsellors and members of the youth groups planning the program have asked all who plan to attend to attend in a costume of some kind. Those who are not able to dress for the occasion will donate fifteen cents.

Due to the large number of young people attending and the limited amount of space in the social hall of the church plans have been made for each member of the Intermediate and Senior Youth Fellowship, youth of the church school in grades six through twelve, to bring or sponsor their friends who have been sharing in the canteen with them.

AVCO WORKER INJURED

Firemen were summoned to the site of the Avco construction on Lowell St., last Tuesday, to transport an injured workman to Choate Memorial Hospital.

Thomas Mahoney fell from an upper level of the construction, landing on the second level between two, two by fours which broke his fall and kept him from serious injury. Authorities stated that Mr. Mahoney was saved from a more serious fall when the two by fours caught him under the arms.

As My Garden Sleeps

By Mari Gold

The wonderful working of nature are never finished. Mother Nature is forever at work, changing the season's color. She also spreads the inevitable "blanket of white" our garden's winter protection. Once in a great while Mother Nature makes a special effort and comes up with a truly new plant for our enjoyment. Such a plant is now being offered. I recently received a folder from the nursery where this plant was propagated.

The plant so newly born is an entirely new flowering

Dog Wood. It is a lovely deep red in color and possesses the good traits of its parents, but has been endowed with a beauty and merit beyond all expectations. In spring and early summer, the blossoms. The blooms appear in spring before the foliage. The foliage is bright green all summer and turns a vivid scarlet in the fall. This new plant goes right on being beautiful way into winter producing little red berries. This is now one of America's most handsome plants, having a special bit of interest to offer with each season. Its full name? "Cherokee Chief" (Cornus Florida Rubra).

Last Saturday we had a full half inch of rain, but this wasn't nearly enough for the unfortunate people who are sporting dry wells, but it will help the gardener with his transplanting. As long as the earth maintains a temperature of 40 degrees the root growth continues, long after early frosts have taken the tops and all apparent activity has ceased. The cool air is cooler than the soil which causes a cessation of the flow of sap to the leaves, so all activity is centered in the root growth. This is one of nature's wise precautions as next spring the plant will be called upon to produce green leaves and flowers before any great underground activity can take place. This is why it is necessary to have strong roots at this time of the year.

If you have your transplanting all done, it is still wise to cultivate lightly between the larger plants. This is one way to help sterilize the ground. Never use old garden stalks for mulching as they often are diseased and pests will take over your garden in the spring.

Never mulch your garden until the ground is really frozen, otherwise the plants will smother and die.

An old fashioned flower which is seldom seen now is the lilly of the valley. Of recent years a new double variety has appeared and this is not too popular either. I think this may be because they spread so. For anyone who is interested in them; the Lilly of the Valley likes shade and rich soil. This plant may be forced for winter bloom in the house. This makes a delightful addition to the indoor garden. The pipes are ready for sale in November and December and prepared for forcing into flower in bowls. It will take 18 to 21 days for them to bloom. Do not buy more than you can use as cold storage pipes will not keep. A seven inch bowl will take 25 pipes. Fill the bowl with moss or peat and keep it damp and in a cool dark place about 65 degrees. When leaves and flower spikes are well developed, bring out into the light, but not in the window, directly in back of the glass as in this position they will turn yellow. This plant will do nicely on end tables.

If you are planning on forcing Hyacinths indoors, November is the last chance to pot them.

Another nice house plant which begins as a bulb is the Oxalis. It comes in various shades, including: yellow, pink and white. If planted now, it will bloom in a few weeks and continue to do so all winter. Put three or four bulbs in a four inch pot, fill with garden soil and cover bulbs one inch deep. Place where it is to flower, in a sunny window, keep the soil moist and it will bloom short ly.

Another bulb plant which is popular for indoor growing is the Amaryllis or Star Lilly. It is a window plant, growing under the simplest conditions. Plant bulbs anytime before January in pots one inch larger than the bulb. They will not bloom if the pot is too large. Cover only lower thick part with soil. The long neck must be exposed. Water sparingly until growth is well started, but water generously after this. The flower may form before the leaves. They vary greatly in time of flowering. Some buds appear in January, others may not show until nearly spring. When the leaves begin to turn yellow, gradually decrease watering and store pots in a cool cellar.

When new life appears, bring them back out into the light and water regularly. It is not necessary to repot this bulb as it will thrive for years with just applications of a chemical plant food in solution. You may leave them for years until they get so root bound they break the pot.

Mr. Success Man you certainly look prosperous riding in your new 1958 car, and it's a credit to your business acumen that you turned in your old inefficient car that was costing you a lot of money to keep on the road. There is not only the savings in gasoline, but more comfort in riding and greater ease of driving.

Mrs. Success Woman, you too are a credit to your husband in your new fall clothes. Not only are they the latest style, but are warmer and more comfortable.

But wait—before you start that football weekend—Stop, look, and listen. What's that old rusty worn piece of apparatus in your cellar. Oil burner, you say, probably you are right, it is an oil burner, possibly an oil hog. Is it efficient? Is it safe? Is it modern? Does it save you money and oil?

How necessary outward appearances seem to be. But sometimes the hidden things are so hidden that we take it for granted that they will last forever.

Come in and look at the Winkler low pressure oil burner, Winkler boilers, and Winkler warm air furnaces, the Cadillac of the oil burner industry, and replace your old burner as you replace your car, for comfort, economy, and appearance.

You will be proving your business acumen, and you will be just as proud to show it to your friends as you are to show them your new car or new Fall clothes.

Call us at REading 3-3290 and we will be glad to show you how you can make your home a better place to live in.

Best regards,

WILMINGTON DYNAMITES DRACUT 28-7

by Philip Tupper
Wilmington High's Wildcats won their third game in a row by defeating Dracut 28-7 at Dracut, Wilmington, after losing its first game, has bounced right back and won its last three, Sunday, adding Dracut to its list of wins by a 28-7 count.

Dracut had the ball in the first quarter. They threw a pass and it was intercepted by George Munroe, Wilmington's Quarterback. He made a long runback of it and set up the stage for a touchdown by Billy Rooney, Wilmington's star halfback, who ran around his end for the touch down. Then Warren (the toe) McFeeters kicked the extra point and this made it 7-0 in Wilmington's favor.

In the second quarter Geo. Munroe threw a long pass to Paul Butt who ran it up to the five yard line. Then Munroe handed off to Neil McCormack his halfback who plunged over for Wilmington's second touchdown. McFeeters again kicked the extra point to make it 14-0 Wilmington's favor at half-time.

At the beginning of the second half, Wilmington received the kickoff, and after a few plays, Munroe threw a long pass to Rooney, who was on about the 25 yard line. Again Munroe handed off to Rooney, who swept around his end and scored his second touchdown of the game. McFeeters again kicked the extra point. By now the game had turned into a complete rout for Wilmington. After Wilmington had got the ball again, Munroe threw a long pass to McFeeters, who dashed into the end zone for Wilmington's final score. This pass play was good for about 50-yards. McFeeters again kicked the extra point to give him 4 for 4 in this game, and 9 for 10 for the season.

Dracut scored its only touchdown of the game in the last quarter, then rushed for the extra point to make the final score 28-7 for Wilmington's third win, making its season record 3-1. Dracut is Wilmington's first conference win as Ayer, and Bedford are not in the League.

Next week Wilmington plays Chelmsford on its home field and although Chelmsford may be favored to win, there may very well be an upset, because Wilmington is playing like a team that can't be beaten.

The winner of the chicken dinner this week, given by Parker's Restaurant, was Paul Butt, end, who played a spectacular game both on offense and defense.

SPECIAL TOWN MEETING IN DOUBT

A letter from Dave Elfman, Chairman of the Glen Road Elementary School Building Committee, asking the Selectmen to consider calling a special town meeting if bids for the school exceed the $650,000 voted at the last meeting, caused Selectman Charles Black to comment that he did not think the town should bear the expense of a special meeting for an "architects monument."

Mr. Black, who remarked that he had always championed the new school building, was joined by Mrs. Wavie Drew and Donald Kidder in the feeling that the new school was rather elaborate for the town. Mr. Black suggested that if the building committee wanted a special meeting they could petition for one themselves.

Selectman Hagerty suggested that perhaps Mr. Elfman and Mr. Black were a little premature as the need had not been proven. He said that the most practical course was to wait until Wednesday (tonight) when the bids would be opened and then consider the advisability of calling a special meeting.
